Google Base is a place where you can easily submit all types of content, including real estate listings, to make it searchable on Google. You can describe your listings with attributes (e.g. "2-bedroom", "fireplace", "New Orleans area," etc.), which will help users to refine their search results and even see the properties displayed on a map, focused on the neighborhood and types of features that they're most interested in. By adding your listing information to Google -- quickly, easily and for free -- you can ensure that the right potential buyers will be able to find your properties, right when they're most actively looking for them.

Including your listings on Cyberhomes will help consumers monitor their most important investment - their home - while also marketing your active listings. It drives traffic to your web site and the lead goes directly to you without intervention or fees.

Trulia is a residential real estate search engine that helps consumers search for homes for sale, trends, neighborhood insights and other real estate information directly from hundreds of thousands of real estate broker Web sites. Consumers can create their own custom search by price, number of bedrooms, neighborhood and more - without having to submit a lead form, provide personal information or wait to get contacted by a lead qualifier who may not handle the property listing. All traffic interested in more information on a property will be directed to the content provider's web site - your web site - and the lead goes directly to you without intervention or fees!

Sell Your Home with the Help of Yahoo! Classifieds. Post your property listing nationwide and reach the Internet's largest classified audience. Users of Yahoo! Classifieds number in the millions. In addition to surfing more than 3 million properties for sale or for rent, consumers can also view maps with homes for sale, schools, parks and more.
Oodle makes it easy to use online classifieds - bringing together loads of listings from hundreds of local and national sources and helping consumers find exactly what they are looking for--whether it be the right job, a great deal on a used ladder, or most importantly, the perfect home. Web based classifieds get you more traffic to your website and in turn generate leads for your brokerage. Once a consumer is interested in more information on a property, they will be directed to the content provider's web site - your web site - and the lead goes directly to you without intervention or fees!

All listings syndicated to Oodle will also appear on five additional Web sites! By selecting Oodle, you are also agreeing to display your listings on Lycos Classifieds, Local.com, Military.com, Backpage.com, and now the Walmart.com classifieds. When your listings appear on these additional sites, the redirection links (to your Brokerage Web site property pages or the ListHub-hosted Property pages according to your account settings) will remain intact, ensuring that consumers who are interested in your property listings will be directed to you. All click traffic generated from these additional sites will show up in your reports collectively under "Oodle."
